- 5.6 If you let us know under Condition 5.5 or if we think it necessary to protect either your security details or your account, we may suspend the use of your security details as a way to access your account. Unless it is unlawful for us to do so or would compromise our reasonable security measures, we will let you know. This will either be done verbally where we are able to do so (and then in writing), or in writing in advance. We will tell you that we intend to suspend the use of your security details and our reason for doing so. If we are unable to contact you in advance we will tell you immediately afterwards. - 6.2 If for any reason we believe that you may not have given an instruction or requested account information or if we reasonably believe that clarification is either necessary or desirable we shall be entitled to refuse to act on it or to require you to provide written confirmation.
- 6.3 If an instruction would breach this agreement and/or the terms and conditions of your account, we reserve the right not to act on it.
- 6.4 We shall be entitled at any time to refuse to provide account information and/or to act on an instruction we have received if for any reason we think it might cause us to breach a law or contractual duty or if we think your account is being used for an illegal purpose.

  - the equipment and/or software you are using fails or is incompatible with our Online Service.

- 8.2 Ending your use of the Online Service does not amount to closure of your savings account, as set out in Condition 17.1 of our General Conditions for savings accounts. It will not affect instructions you have already given unless you also ask us not to process them and it is not too late to amend or cancel the transaction(s).
- 8.3 In normal circumstances we will not end or suspend your use of the Online Service without giving you at least two months' notice. Examples of circumstances which are not "normal" include, by way of example only, suspected fraud or security concerns.

12. SEVERANCE

- 12.1 Each of the provisions and sub-provisions of this agreement is separate and distinct from the others and if at any time any one or more of such provisions or sub-provisions becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable, this will not impair or affect the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions.

- 13.2 We will always try to resolve any complaint quickly and at the earliest possible stage.
